R. THOMAS GAGLARDI

OWNER AND GOVERNOR

R. Thomas (Tom) Gaglardi is the owner and governor of the Dallas Stars Hockey Club and the president of Northland Properties Corporation, the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada with its head offices located in Vancouver, B.C. He was officially introduced as the sixth owner in franchise history on November 21, 2011.

In just three seasons as owner of the club, Gaglardi has revitalized hockey in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, overhauling the team's front office by hiring veteran administrator Jim Lites to serve as president and installing one of the most respected hockey minds in Jim Nill as general manager. He also spearheaded the overhaul of the team's logo and uniform, forging a new identity for the club to fit his vision. Under his watch, industry insiders have consistently identified the Stars as a team "on the rise" for both the business and hockey operations side of the organization. During the 2014-15 season, Gaglardi purchased the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League (AHL) and acquired the operating rights to Cedar Park Center in Cedar Park, Texas. The move re-enforced his commitment to sustaining and growing the sport of hockey in the state of Texas and creating a seamless organizational process to develop and train NHL-caliber players, coaches and front office staff.

A passionate and knowledgeable leader who is deeply involved in all aspects of the family's business, Gaglardi began his career in the hospitality industry at age 13 as a busboy and has worked in virtually every area of his business since that time. He spent considerable time in construction, hotel and restaurant operations, real estate development and finance. At age 23, he was promoted to president of the Sandman Hotel Group, and at 26 he became president of Northland Properties Corporation, the Gaglardi family's umbrella company.

Under his direction, Northland has grown to be the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada including a large portfolio of hotels with the Sandman Hotel Group and the Sutton Place Hotels & Resorts, several restaurant chains including Denny's Restaurants of Canada, Moxie's Classic Grill, Chop Steakhouse & Bar and Shark Club Bar & Grill. In 2009, Gaglardi began expanding his brand of hospitality to the United Kingdom and will soon be operating in North Texas with the planned opening of the first Sandman Hotel and Moxie's Classic Grill in the United States. The family also owns and operates a large real estate portfolio and the world renowned Revelstoke Mountain Resort. In addition to his role with the Stars, Gaglardi is a co-owner of the Kamloops Blazers Hockey Club of the Western Hockey League and serves as its governor.

An active member of the community, Gaglardi founded the Sandman Harvest Foundation, which has raised over $1 million for disadvantaged and medically challenged children living in the Okanagan Valley of British Columbia. He also serves as trustee for the PA and JM Gaglardi Senior Citizens Society, a non-profit society providing housing for seniors in Kamloops, B. C. and serves on the board of St. George's School in Vancouver. He founded the Josh Dyck Foundation to assist Josh with his recovery from an auto accident in October 2006, which left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

Gaglardi and his wife Brittney have three sons, Charlie, Bennett and Wilson, all of whom play competitive hockey. In addition to his own participation on his hockey team, Gaglardi enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family at their cottage on the shores of Kamloops Lake near Savona, B.C.

JAMES R. LITES
PRESIDENT AND CEO

Dallas Stars owner Tom Gaglardi appointed Jim Lites President and CEO of the Stars on Nov. 18, 2011. Lites is very familiar with the position having held it twice previously under prior owners Norm Green and Tom Hicks.

Lites enters the 2015-16 season with a reputation as one the finest administrators in professional sports. He is responsible for all aspects of the Dallas Stars hockey and business operations and reports directly to Mr. Gaglardi. Lites also serves as an Alternate Governor on the NHL's Board of Governors, a role he held from 1982-07. Over the years Lites has served on the Board's marketing, broadcasting, expansion and game committees.

Over the course of Lites' two prior stints with the Stars (1993-02; 2003-07), the team won seven division championships, two Western Conference championships, two Presidents' Trophies, and the 1999 Stanley Cup. He played an active role in the conception, design, construction and on-going business operations of American Airlines Center and Dr Pepper StarCenter ice facilities. Most recently, Lites played a significant role in hiring General Manager Jim Nill, purchasing the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League (AHL) and the operating lease of the Cedar Park Center in Cedar Park, Texas.

From 1999-02, Lites also served as president of MLB's Texas Rangers, becoming one of only four executives at the time to simultaneously manage the affairs of two major league franchises. He served three years on MLB's Executive Council and was President when the Rangers captured the 1999 American League West championship.

Prior to joining the Stars in 1993, Lites served 11 years as chief operating officer of the Detroit Red Wings, who during his stint, won three Norris Division championships and two Norris Division Playoff championships after having missed the playoffs in 10 of the 11 seasons before his hiring. During his tenure, the Red Wings were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was also instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Vyacheslav Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, each of whom played important parts of the Red Wings' record-setting and Stanley Cup champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Lites also served as chief operating officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

From 2007 until being rehired by the Stars in 2011, Lites managed the New York Football Giants' Personal Seat License program at MetLife in East Rutherford, N.J. That program was one of the most successful of its type in history.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Mich., Lites received a bachelor of arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (MI) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law. Jim and his wife Kim reside in Frisco. They have four children, sons Chase, Sam, Chandler, and daughter, Brooke.

BRAD ALBERTS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Brad Alberts is in his second tenure with the Dallas Stars and currently serves as the Executive Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer after rejoining the team in February, 2011.

Alberts plays a vital role in all areas of strategic planning for the club as a member of the Stars executive team. He oversees all aspects of sales and marketing operations, including corporate sponsorship, broadcasting, in-game entertainment, ticket sales, marketing, communications, and team retail merchandising. Additionally, Alberts serves alongside Stars President Jim Lites on the American Airlines Center Board of Directors, assisting in the management of one of the busiest arenas in the United States.

Alberts' career includes nearly two decades of professional sports experience selling tickets, suites, premium seating, and sponsorships. From 1996-09, Alberts worked for the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers in various sales management roles in tickets, suites and corporate sponsorships. From 2006-09, Alberts served as the Executive Vice President of the Hicks Sports Marketing Group, the in-house sponsorship sales group for the Stars, Texas Rangers, and Liverpool Football Club. Since rejoining the team in 2011, Alberts has played an integral role in the resurgence of the Stars in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, helping lead the organization to tremendous growth in brand visibility, attendance and sponsorship sales. Alberts and his leadership team have been instrumental in the sweeping rebrand of the team, retiring Mike Modano's number and creating tremendous sponsorship value for the team and its partners.

Alberts received his bachelor's degree from Ripon College in 1992 where he was a four-year lettermen and co-captain of the basketball team. He received a master's degree in sports administration from Northern Colorado in 1995. Alberts is an avid golfer, and fitness enthusiast. He resides with his wife and their daughter, Grace, in Southlake, Texas.

Currently serving dual roles as Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, Farris oversees all aspects of Dallas Sports & Entertainment's finance and administration, box office, human resources and information technology. He is also responsible for leading the operations and growth of the Dr Pepper StarCenters, and the 6,500-seat Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco, Texas. Within the community, Farris serves as board chair of the Dallas Stars Foundation, is a member of the advisory board of the Dallas Stars Alumni Association and leads the Stars youth hockey initiatives to continue the growth of hockey at the grassroots level in Texas.

A native of Vancouver, B.C., Farris brings a depth of business expertise and passion for hockey to the Stars. Through circaNow, Farris authored and published four hockey books: Behind the Moves: NHL General Managers Tell how Winners are Built (2011) which was hailed as "the most important hockey book in over a decade"; Hail Cesare: Trail through the NHL (2006) about Stars' franchise legendary goalie, Cesare Maniago; a national best-seller in Canada, Hockey Play-by-Play: Around the NHL with Jim Robson (2005) and its encore edition, Hockey Play-by-Play: Canuck Captains with Jim Robson (2010).

Farris holds a master of science in management from the MIT Sloan School of Management in Cambridge, Mass. He also holds a bachelor of arts in political science from the University of Toronto and a bachelor of science in physics from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. He has been a member of the Society for International Hockey Research since 1995 and is a contributor to Total NHL as well as the annual NHL Official Guide and Record Book.

Farris is never far from the rink. For years he was a Hockey Canada official, having refereed and lined hundreds of minor hockey games. Though he grew up between the pipes, he can now be found playing in local men's league games as a centerman or right winger.

Jason and his wife, Sarah, have two children, Jane and Owen, and they reside in University Park, Texas.

JIM NILL

GENERAL MANAGER / ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Jim Nill is entering his third season as general manager of the Dallas Stars after being appointed to the position on April 29, 2013 by owner and governor, Tom Gaglardi. He is the 11th general manager in franchise history and the sixth since the team moved to Dallas.

Since joining the Stars, Nill has dramatically re-shaped the team's culture and roster with a series of trades and acquisitions. In the summer of 2013, he hired veteran coach Lindy Ruff to serve as the team's head coach and acquired young superstar center, Tyler Seguin, in a blockbuster, seven-player deal with the Boston Bruins. Seeing the need for continued depth at the center position, Nill once again made headlines in the 2014 offseason by bringing in center Jason Spezza via trade with Ottawa to give the Stars one of the most dynamic one-two combinations in the NHL. This past summer, he acquired three-time Stanley Cup champion Patrick Sharp in a trade with the Chicago Blackhawks and signed free agent defenseman Johnny Oduya and goaltender Antti Niemi.

At the end of the 2014-15 season, Nill was named general manager of Canada's National Team for the 2015 IIHF World Championship in the Czech Republic and constructed a roster that captured the gold medal at the tournament. Under his leadership, Team Canada touted a perfect 10-0 record and featured Dallas Stars players Tyler Seguin, Cody Eakin and Jason Spezza, who was named the top forward of the tournament by the IIHF directorate. Previously, Nill has won gold medals when he served as general manager for Team Canada at the 2004 IIHF World Championship and as assistant general manager at the 2003 IIHF World Championship.

Prior to joining the Stars, Nill spent a total of 19 seasons as a member of the Detroit Red Wings management team, the last 15 of those as the team's assistant general manager. His responsibilities with Detroit included directing the amateur scouting department, overseeing all selections at the NHL Draft, as well as managing the development of the organization's prospects at both the professional and amateur levels. During Nill's tenure in Detroit, the Red Wings had more wins than any other franchise in the National Hockey League, won four Stanley Cups (1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), six Presidents' Trophies (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008), 12 Central Division titles (1995, 1996, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), seven regular season Western Conference titles (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008), and never missed the playoffs. He was an integral part of Detroit's drafting of Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg, Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula, Jimmy Howard and Johan Franzen, amongst others.

The Hanna, Alta., native joined the Red Wings' front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. Previously, Nill enjoyed a nine-season NHL career as a right wing with the Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks, St. Louis Blues, Winnipeg Jets and Red Wings. He collected 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 penalty minutes in 524 regular-season games. Nill later went to Adirondack as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season. A member of the 1979-80 Canadian National and Olympic teams, he was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Blues (89th overall) in the 1978 NHL Draft.

Jim and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Frisco, Texas and have three children: Jenna, Trevor and Kristin.

LES JACKSON
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Les Jackson is in his 28th season with the Stars, dating back to the club's days in Minnesota. His role consists of monitoring the development of all amateur and professional prospects.

Jackson, 61, is widely respected as one of the best talent evaluators in hockey, having helped build the Stars into the consistently competitive hockey club that it has become over the last two decades. Learning from the tutelage of respected general managers such as Bob Clarke, Bob Gainey and Lou Nanne, Jackson also assisted in the evaluation of players as it related to movement within the organization, including the entry draft, trades and free agent signings. During Jackson's tenure, the Stars have selected future NHL stars such as Mike Modano, Derian Hatcher, Jere Lehtinen, Jarome Iginla, Marty Turco, Brenden Morrow, Jamie Benn, John Klingberg, Valeri Nichushkin and Loui Eriksson among others.

Jackson, a native of Manning, Alta., was drafted by the Boston Bruins in 1972 and played two seasons in the minors prior to his career as a hockey executive. His minor professional coaching career included stints in Billings and Great Falls, Mont., Tucson, Ariz. and New Westminster and Revelstoke, B.C. He also spent five years as assistant coach and general manager of the Western Hockey League's Brandon Wheat Kings.

SCOTT WHITE
DIRECTOR, HOCKEY OPERATIONS/TEXAS STARS GM

Scott White was promoted to Dallas' director of hockey operations in May, 2013. He also serves as the General Manager for the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). He was the architect behind the 2014-15 Calder Cup-winning Texas Stars, a team that set a franchise record 48 wins, claiming the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the AHL's regular-season points champion, as well as the John D. Chick Trophy as the West Division champions. The only General Manager in the history of the Texas Stars Hockey Club, White was selected last season by Hockey Canada to serve as a member of the management group for Canada's National Men's Team at the 2014 Deutschland Cup and 2014 Spengler Cup.

A member of the Dallas Stars organization since 2005, White, 47, previously served as a professional scout and director of minor league operations. He headed up the hockey department for the Iowa Stars, Dallas' then-primary affiliate, for three seasons. Prior to joining the Stars organization, he served as head coach of the Columbia Inferno of the ECHL for four seasons, qualifying for a playoff berth each year. He also guided Columbia to a Kelly Cup Final appearance in 2003 and finished with a 165-87-36 record (.635) in over four seasons with the Inferno. In Columbia, he was responsible for all the club's hockey operation activities, including recruiting, scouting, trades and roster moves. White worked as an assistant coach with the Greensboro Monarchs (ECHL) for a season and a half, and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan Tech University, from 1994-99.

White played five years of professional hockey from 1989-94, including three seasons with Greensboro, where he won the 1990 ECHL Championship and earned ECHL Defenseman of the Year and First-Team All-ECHL honors for the 1991-92 season. He signed with the Ottawa Senators in 1992 and played the entire season with the club's developmental affiliate in New Haven, capturing team MVP honors after posting 54 points (10-44=54) in 80 games. The Quebec native finished his professional career with 235 points (55-180=235) in 190 regular-season games and 40 points (8-32=40) in 41 postseason games.

A 1998 graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara with a degree in communications, Janko is a native of Mission Viejo, Calif. In his first season as Dallas' head coach, Ruff guided the club to its first playoff berth since 2008 before being defeated by the Anaheim Ducks in six games in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Ruff, 55, is the eighth-winningest head coach in NHL history with a 652-494-78-105 record. ## AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

One of the finest multi-purpose venues in the world, American Airlines Center has served as the home of the Dallas Stars since 2001, playing host to over half-a-million hockey spectators annually and over 2 million spectators total annually.

Designed by world-renowned architect, David M. Schwarz and Dallas-based HKS Inc., American Airlines Center encompasses over 800,000 square feet and includes 118 luxury suites, 36 Service King Lounge theatre-box suites, two fifty-person suites and room for 18,532 hockey fans. Its brick and glass façade, sweeping vistas of downtown Dallas, double-vaulted ceilings and welcoming signature arches give the Center a unique combination of a modern, yet classically-elegant design that is perfectly suited for Dallas' "larger-than-life" Texas spirit.

No stranger to hosting major sporting events, the Center has seen the 2002 & 2006 NCAA first and second Round Men's Basketball Tournaments, The Phillips 66 2003, 2004, & 2006 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournaments, 2009 U.S.A. Gymnastics Visa Championships and other events such as Boxing and Ultimate Fighting Championships. It was also a proud host of the 2007 NHL All-Star Game, 2006 and 2011 NBA Finals and hosted events during the 2010 NBA All-Star Weekend.

Not solely a sports mecca, Pollstar and Billboard consistently rank American Airlines Center among the top-10 arenas of its kind in the world for concerts. It has hosted major concerts and events, such as Coldplay, U2, The Rolling Stones, Billy Joel, Elton John, Taylor Swift, Rod Stewart, George Strait, Tom Petty, Imagine Dragons, Madonna, Justin Timberlake, and Bruce Springsteen, among others.

American Airlines Center was designed to keep ice in perfect condition, even when the Texas heat blazes outside. To maintain a constant temperature of 64-68 degrees, the building has a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and300 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 4,200-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called Polar Floor, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without affecting the ice. The Zamboni is retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

Although American Airlines Center recently surpassed its first decade of existence, the arena still pushes the envelope with technology. In 2009, the Center set the standard for hockey and basketball arenas by installing the first 1080 high-definition center scoreboard in the NHL and NBA, increasing digital video throughout the arena bowl by 300 percent. Matching the spectacular HD video experience is a state-of-the-art concert quality sound system.The digital line array audio system delivers audio effects that the American Airlines Center visitor can both feel and hear. Using a patented retractable seating system, the Center can convert from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than two hours.

CEDAR PARK CENTER

Northland Properties Corporation, the parent holding company of the Dallas Stars, purchased the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL), in December, 2014, announcing that the transfer of ownership from Hicks Cedar Park, LLC had been successful and was approved by the AHL Board of Governors. The newly-created Texas Stars, L.P. now operates the city-owned Cedar Park Center, located in Cedar Park, Texas, under a long-term lease running through 2034.

"Cedar Park Center, and the land surrounding it, is located in one of the fastest growing regions of the United States," Northland President and Dallas Stars Owner Tom Gaglardi said. "The opportunity to grow the area's footprint as the top-flight entertainment region in Central Texas is immense, and we are looking forward to engaging with the city of Cedar Park to make that happen."

Cedar Park Center holds 6,863 seats for hockey, 7,200 for basketball and up to 8,700 for concerts and other events. The state-of-the-art arena has 24 suites (including four party suites) and 545 club seats with a private club lounge. The building hosts more than 130 events per year including sporting events, concerts, and family shows. Cedar Park Center is home to the 2014 AHL Calder Cup champion Texas Stars. The building also serves as the home court to the Austin Spurs, the NBA Development League affiliate of the 2014 NBA champion San Antonio Spurs. Since opening in September of 2009, Cedar Park Center has hosted world-class performers and events such as George Strait, Rascal Flatts, Alan Jackson, Tool, Jason Aldean, Def Leppard, Eric Church, Cirque du Soleil and Disney On Ice.

"Since coming to Cedar Park, the Texas Stars have been a wonderful partner of ours in bringing world-class sports and entertainment to the area," said Cedar Park Mayor Matt Powell. "We look forward to working closely with Northland Properties and the Dallas Stars in this outstanding partnership as we continue to fulfill the vision of Cedar Park Center and the city."

In its first six seasons of existence, all of which have been as the affiliate of the Dallas Stars, the Texas Stars have proved to be one of the most successful franchises in the AHL. The team captured its first Calder Cup championship in 2014. The club has made two trips to the Calder Cup Final (2010, 2014), qualifying for the postseason in five of its six seasons (2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015), and has posted 40-win campaigns four times. Many of the Dallas Stars' young core of NHL players have spent time skating for the Texas Stars including captain Jamie Benn, forwards Cody Eakin and Antoine Roussel and defenseman John Klingberg.

"With the level of intense parity in the NHL, teams have to strive for every advantage they can get," said Dallas Stars General Manager Jim Nill. "Owning and operating your own AHL affiliate brings immeasurable benefits and allows for a more seamless process to develop and train NHL-caliber players, coaches and front office staff."

DR PEPPER ARENA

The Dallas Stars Organization opened Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco, Texas, in June 2009, and it has become the premiere entertainment venue in Collin County.

Formerly known as Deja Blue Arena at Dr Pepper StarCenter, the facility underwent a major renovation through a partnership between the Dallas Stars, the City of Frisco and the Frisco ISD. The original facility opened in 2003.

Most of the renovation took place on the arena side of the complex, which began in the summer of 2008. Dr Pepper Arena's capacity increased from 3,500 to just over 6,000. Additions to the arena included a 1,000-space parking garage, extensive kitchen/catering capabilities, 12 luxury suites and a VIP club.

Dr Pepper Arena opened June 1, 2009 and featured many entertaining guests and shows in its first year, including Cirque Du Soleil, Hillsong United, Championship Boxing, Steele Cage Mixed Martial Arts and the Harlem Globetrotters. Along with a variety of concerts, corporate gatherings and religious events, the facility annually hosts the Shrine Circus and Frisco ISD graduation. Dr Pepper Arena will host the 2016 Big 12 Conference Gymnastics Championship on March 19 and 2016 NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship from March 23-26, 2016.

Dr Pepper Arena is also the home to the Texas Legends, the Dallas Mavericks' D-League affiliate.

"Dr Pepper Arena has been very successful since its expansion was completed," said Dallas Stars Chief Operating Officer, Jason Farris. "It is the premiere entertainment venue in Collin County and the Frisco area. We look forward to many more great events coming to Dr Pepper Arena."

Dr Pepper has been a strong partner of the Dallas Stars since the hockey club came to North Texas in 1993.

"We are very proud of our longstanding relationship with the Dallas Stars through our sponsorship of the team and our continued involvement with Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the Metroplex," said Jim Trebilcock, Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for Dr Pepper Snapple Group, based in Plano, Texas. "Dr Pepper Arena brings that relationship to a new level, providing a state-of-the-art sports and entertainment venue for the Frisco community and in the process gives the Dr Pepper brand even more visibility here in our home market."

"We've been very happy with Dr Pepper Arena over the past few years," said Frisco Mayor Maher Maso. "The expansion project has transformed the arena into a well-balanced venue with greater capabilities to host events for everyone. Our residents and visitors enjoy more entertainment opportunities and our city benefits economically from the arena's enhanced ability to host a wide variety of events."

DR PEPPER STARCENTERS

When the Stars moved from Minnesota to Texas, the Club made exposing the Dallas/Fort Worth community to hockey an organizational priority. By constructing and operating several Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the Metroplex, the team has been able to have direct involvement with developing and growing the game of hockey in the greater Southwest.

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena, run in partnership with the City of Frisco. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among clubs that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the League. The facilities in Euless, Farmers Branch and McKinney were all built in partnership with those cities. There are also Dr Pepper StarCenters in Irving, Plano, and Richardson.

The Stars have come a long way since moving to town nearly 20 years ago. When the team first set foot in Texas, there were five total sheets of ice in the area (two of which were at shopping malls and didn't host hockey). At that time, there were no high school or travel hockey teams, while only 250 local children were playing the sport and just 225 adults playing in recreational leagues.

During the 2014-15 season, there were more than 8,000 North Texas kids and over 8,000 adults skating and playing recreational hockey on over 20 sheets of ice in the area, including more than 40 high school hockey teams participating in the Stars-run AT&T Metroplex High School Hockey League.

With all the success the Stars have had growing the game and working with USA Hockey & TAHA, it's no surprise that the Lone Star State is beginning to produce world-class hockey talent. Since 2005, 13 native Texans have been drafted into the National Hockey League, including eight who hail directly from the area (Dallas, Plano, Coppell, Arlington, Lewisville). Nine of those players have been selected since 2008, making Texas a top-15 producer of American NHL draftees in that span. In the summer of 2013, Plano native Seth Jones was selected fourth overall in the NHL Entry Draft by the Nashville Predators, the highest a native Texan has ever been selected.

The Dallas Stars continue to play a crucial role in the grass roots development of the sport in Texas through Little Rookies, a four-week try hockey for free program, and Fitness Stars, a physical education program aimed at fighting childhood obesity through hockey-based fitness challenges. Through those programs, over 175,000 elementary school-aged kids will pick up a stick or lace on skates for the first time in 2014-15.

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established in 1998 to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to the children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth.

Since 1998, the Foundation has awarded more than $4 million to local charities through their charitable grants program. Over the years, the Foundation has partnered with numerous non-profit agencies that focus on a myriad of worthwhile causes, including youth hockey, medical and other basic needs for disadvantaged youth, educational and social issues, family support and crisis intervention.

The Dallas Stars Foundation has three pillars of focus for their giving, programs and partnerships: youth hockey, youth engagement and health and education. To date, the Foundation has made in-kind and ticket donations to over 1,100 different organizations including schools, non-profit organizations and sports related programs.

Through donations made by the Dallas Stars, Dallas Stars players, season ticket holders and the Dallas Stars Foundation via the community tickets program, over $218,000 in tickets were donated to local charitable organizations.

Dallas Stars players and staff actively participated in various fundraising events and community events including school and hospital visits, total in 400 hours volunteered.

Through the continued work of the Foundation, the Dallas Stars organization pledges to support the Metroplex and the state of Texas in order to support community efforts through the great game of hockey.

FIDO'S KIDS 38

Designed by Dallas Stars and American hockey legend Mike Modano, the Little Rookies program launched in October, 2013. Focused on teaching children the fundamentals of hockey, the program provided them with all the necessary equipment for the duration of the four-week period. By giving children the opportunity to try the sport of hockey with no strings attached, the program has been the catalyst for growing the sport in Texas.

The first-of-its-kind program was offered at all ice rinks in the Metroplex five times during the year for children between the ages of four to eight and have never participated in a hockey program. Since the inception of the program in September 2013, over 3,300 children across 11 ice facilities in Dallas, Austin and College Station have been introduced to the sport of hockey. Throughout the duration of the program, over 30% of enrolled participants made the commitment to continue with a paid hockey program following the four-week session.

As of the Summer of 2015, Little Rookies expanded to Austin and College Station, offering more children the opportunity to try the sport of hockey for free. The Dallas Stars organization is actively looking to expand the program in the current markets as well as finding new ice facilities in the Southwest to grow Little Rookies beyond the state of Texas. Fall, 2015 will mark the third year of the Little Rookies program.

FITNESS STARS

Fitness Stars enters its third season of existence in 2015-16 after launching at the start of the 2013-14 season. Created as a physical education program aimed at fighting childhood obesity through hockey-based fitness challenges, Fitness Stars was offered at 28 DFW area schools in its inaugural season, reaching over 15,000 children.

Due to the program's overwhelming success, Fitness Stars has since expanded and is now offered in over 300 schools in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and is expected to impact over 185,000 children. Participating schools include Carroll ISD, Coppell ISD, Carrollton-Farmers Branch ISD, Fort Worth ISD, Garland ISD, Irving ISD, Lewisville ISD, McKinney ISD, Mesquite ISD, Wylie ISD, and 12 individual schools.

Participants in the program complete five Fitness Stars challenges and collect Stars charms after achieving each goal. Every student who completes the program receives a ticket voucher for an upcoming Stars home game at American Airlines Center.

Captain Jamie Benn tied the game at the 17:03 mark before Tyler Seguin scored the game-winner on the power play with just 2.9 seconds remaining in the game. This marks the first time that the Stars have scored two goals in the final three minutes of regulation to win the game since Oct. 20, 2006 when Mike Ribeiro and Philippe Boucher scored in the final 1:14 of regulation to defeat Chicago, 5-4, at American Airlines Center. ## LEHT THERE BE LIGHT!

In his 11th NHL campaign, Dallas netminder Kari Lehtonen posted a 34-17-10 record in 65 appearances during the 2014-15 season. The native of Helsinki, Finland also matched a career high with 34 wins, sharing ninth in the League. This marks the fourth time in the last five seasons that Lehtonen has reached the 30-win plateau, and the fifth time in his career. He is one of just five active goaltenders to reach the 30-win mark in four of the last five seasons, while he ranks sixth with 148 total wins over that span.

7(00)TH HEAVEN

Five Stars players each skated in their 700th career NHL games during the 2014-15 campaign. Defenseman Trevor Daley was the first to reach the 700-game plateau, followed by forwards Jason Spezza, Travis Moen, Ales Hemsky and Vernon Fiddler. Of the five Stars players who eclipsed the 700-game plateau this season, Daley, who was traded to Chicago was the only one who had played all of them with the Stars.

In addition to skating in his 700th game on Nov. 8 against San Jose, Spezza also registered an assist in the contest for the 700th point of his NHL career. This marks just the second time in NHL history that a player has earned their 700th point in their 700th contest, joining Ilya Kovalchuk. Kovalchuk and Spezza were selected No. 1 (Atlanta) and No. 2 (Ottawa) overall in the 2001 NHL Draft, while Hemsky was selected No. 13 (Edmonton) in 2001. Forward Patrick Sharp, acquired by Dallas via trade on July 10, 2015, is also a member of the 2001 Draft class, having been selected by Philadelphia with the 95th overall selection.

Accolades &
HISTORY

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking Roseau High School to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL. Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98).

Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

1980 1995

Bill Goldsworthy began his NHL career with the Boston Bruins in 1964. Goldsworthy's time in Boston was short-lived, as he appeared in just 33 regular-season games and earned 12 points (6-6=12) over parts of three seasons with the Bruins before he was selected by the Minnesota North Stars in the expansion draft in 1967.

A native of Waterloo, Ont., Goldsworthy would make a name for himself in the NHL with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of his signature goal celebration, the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy registered five 30+ goal seasons in his career, all coming while he was in Minnesota. The right wing put up career-bests during the 1973-74 season as he finished the campaign ranked fifth in the NHL with a franchise-record 48 goals, which stood as the most goals scored in a season by a North Stars player until the 1981-82 season. Goldsworthy also recorded a franchise-best 321 shots on goal during the 1973-74 campaign, a record which he still holds today. Goldsworthy was the first player from a post-1967 expansion club to reach the 200- and 250-goal mark, while he eclipsed the 500-point plateau during the 1976-77 season to become the first player in Minnesota North Stars history to accomplish the feat.

Goldsworthy finished his 10-season career with the North Stars in 1977 when he was traded to the New York Rangers. Over that span, he registered 267 goals, 239 assists and 506 points (267-239=506) in 670 regular-season games. One of the best to wear a North Stars sweater, Goldsworthy still holds franchise marks as he currently ranks fifth all-time in goals (267), sixth in game-winning goals (34), 10th in points (506) and third in shots on goal (2,237). Goldsworthy was also named to an All-Star four times during his career (1970, 1972, 1974 and 1976).

In recognition of his accomplishments, Goldsworthy's number eight was retired by the organization on February 15, 1992. Goldsworthy passed away on March 29, 1996 at the age of 51 due to complications from AIDS.

1967 1977

On March 8, 2014, the Dallas Stars honored Mike Modano, the greatest player to wear a Stars uniform, by retiring his iconic number 9. He became the fourth player in franchise history to have his number retired, joining Neal Broten (No. 7), Bill Goldsworthy (No. 8) and Bill Masterton (No. 19) as the only players in team history to have their number retired.

The organization hosted multiple events over the weekend of the game including a private dinner on for VIPs attending the ceremony, the KIA Victory Green Carpet in Victory Plaza outside of American Airlines Center and the Mike Modano Retirement Ceremony presented by Albertsons.

Widely praised by members of the media as one of the top jersey retirement ceremonies of its kind, Modano was honored prior to the game against the Minnesota Wild with an emotional 40-minute tribute featuring the 1999 Stanley Cup winning team, significant individuals from his career and the raising of the banner to the rafters of American Airlines Center. The largest crowd to ever watch a regular season hockey game in the state of Texas witnessed the Stars thrilling come-from-behind win over Minnesota, which was followed by the organization hosting an exclusive post-game celebration for season ticket holders and VIPs at the Omni Hotel in downtown Dallas.

Modano, the greatest American-born hockey player in NHL history, played 21 seasons in the NHL and is the all-time franchise leader in nearly every category, including games played (1,459), goals (557), assists (802), points (1,359), short-handed goals (29), game-winning goals (92) and power play tallies (156).

A seven-time NHL All-Star, 2014 Hockey Hall of Fame class member, and United States Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Modano is also the American-born record holder in goals (561) and points (1,374). He was also instrumental in helping the Stars capture the 1999 Stanley Cup championship. The Livonia, Michigan, native skated for Team USA at the Olympxic Games on three separate occasions, winning the silver medal at the 2002 Games in Salt Lake City. He also captured the gold medal at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey; and was captain of the United States squad at the 2005 World Cup. Modano was drafted first overall in 1988 by the Minnesota North Stars.

1989 DALLAS STARS 2010

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural NHL team in 1967-68, recording 12 points (4-8=12) in 38 contests before suffering a fatal head injury in a game on Jan. 13, 1968.

A native of Winnipeg, Man., Masterton attended the University of Denver where he played for three seasons with the Pioneers in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA). The center was a two-time National Champion with Denver, winning the NCAA tournament in back-to-back seasons in 1960 and 1961. Named team captain for the 1960-61 campaign, Masterton posted a single-season club record with 56 assists, a record he held until the 1981-82 season. He also registered 80 points (25-56=80) during the 1960-61 season, which ranks seventh in Denver history for points in a single season, and was named the most valuable player of the 1961 national championship. Masterton earned two NCAA All-American accolades and was named to the WCHA All-Star team twice, earning both awards in 1960 and 1961. Masterton finished his collegiate career as the University of Denver's all-time leading point scorer, tallying 196 points (66-130=196) in 89 games. While his record was eventually broken in 1986, Masterton's 196 career points is currently tied for third in school history.

After graduating from Denver, Masterton played his first season of professional hockey with the Hull-Ottawa Canadiens of the Eastern Professional Hockey League (EPHL), recording 66 points (31-35=66) in 65 games during the 1961-62 campaign. He continued his pro career in 1962-63 with the Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League (AHL). Masterton led the Barons with 82 points (27-55=82) in 72 contests and finished as the runner up for the Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award as the AHL's top rookie.

After taking some time off from hockey, Masterton returned to the game and played for two seasons with the St. Paul Steers of the United States Hockey League (1965-66) and the United States National Team (1966-67) before joining the North Stars. The first player to sign with the new Minnesota club, Masterton made his NHL debut in the team's inaugural game on Oct. 11, 1967 against the St. Louis Blues, scoring the first goal in franchise history. In a game against the Oakland Seals on Jan. 13, 1968, Masterton suffered a severe head injury when he hit his head on the ice after being checked. The 29-year-old eventually passed away as a result of his injury on Jan. 15, and is the only player in NHL history to die as a direct result of an injury suffered on the ice.

In his memory, the Professional Hockey Writers' Association created the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy in 1968, an award presented annually to the "National Hockey League player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another player in franchise history, and was retired by the organization on January 17, 1987.

On January 24, 2007, the stage was set for Dallas to host the 55th NHL All-Star Game at American Airlines Center. This marked the first time since the team moved to Dallas that it was hosting the All-Star festivities, and just the second time in franchise history as the club also hosted the 1972 All-Star Game in Minnesota. Defenseman Philippe Boucher and goaltender Marty Turco represented the Stars in the game as they both were voted onto the Western Conference roster through the fan voting process, while Boucher was named a starter in the contest, replacing Anaheim's Scott Niedermayer who could not play in the game due to injury. Current Dallas bench boss Lindy Ruff also participated in the All-Star Game as he was named head coach of the Eastern Conference All-Stars. With a capacity crowd of 18,532 on hand, the West defeated the East in the contest by a final score of 12-9, with then-Buffalo Sabres forward Daniel Briere being named the MVP of the game.

On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing faceoff, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.
